

PRESS CLIPPINGS

For your information...

PUBLICATION:	TIMES OF INDIA (EDU-TIMES)	PAGE NO:	04,
PLACE:	MUMBAI	VALUE RS.:
DATE:	15/08/2005	CIRCULATION:

Client:  Supplement  Colour  Black & White
 FREQUENCY:  Daily  Weekly  Fortnightly  Monthly  Quarterly  Bi-Monthly

FLASH |
NEWS

SINGAPOREAN HOSPITALITY

STB scholarship for hospitality management

The Singapore Tourism Board (STB) has launched the STB Scholarship for CNI, a scholarship for students pursuing the one-year Master of Management in Hospitality offered by the Cornell-Nanyang Institute of Hospitality Management (CNI).

CNI is jointly established by the prestigious Cornell University School of Hotel Administration and the Nanyang Technological University (NTU) Nanyang Business School in Singapore.

The scholarship is open to all students who are admitted to and complete the Master of Management in Hospitality programme in the CNI, regardless of their nationality or background. Upon completion of the programme in the CNI, recipients of the scholarship will be required to work in a tourism related company registered in Singapore, such as the upcoming integrated resorts, hotels and F&B chains, for a period of up to two years, depending on the amount of the award.

The closing date for scholarship applications for study in academic year 2006/ 07 is November 2005. For full details of the scholarship and application procedures, visit the CNI website at <http://www.cni.ntu.edu.sg>.

The scholarship supported by a sum of S$ 2 million (US 1.2 million) over five years will benefit four to eight scholars each year, for a period of five years. Award of the scholarship will be based on merit and financial needs